LOGAN INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT

Boston, Massachusetts

Logan Airport Ground Transportation

Logan Airport Ground Transportation

Why let getting to Logan get to you?

Driving to the airport can often land you in a traffic jam. And during peak travel periods, you may not be able to find parking . . .

So instead of driving, take the T subway, or a bus, limousine, taxi, or water shuttle. And leave your car at home!

LOGAN GROUND TRANSPORTATION

The quickest, cheapest way to get between downtown Boston and Logan is via the T subway and Airport Shuttle Buses.

Buses, limousines and taxis depart from the lower level at all terminals.

Airport Shuttle Buses

Shuttle Buses 22 and 33 provide free service to and from airline terminals and T Airport Station. Shuttle Bus 11 provides free service between terminals; it does not stop at Airport Station.

Hours: Daily, 5:30am–1:00am, every 8–12 minutes.

T Subway

The T Blue Line runs from Airport Station to downtown Boston; see T map for connections to suburbs.

Hours: Daily, 5:25am–1:00am, every 8–12 minutes.
Fares: $.60; senior citizens, $.10 with T pass.

Airport Handicap Van

Free service between terminals. To request service, contact airline representative or use Van Phone in baggage claim areas.

Hours: Daily, 5:30am–1:00am.

Taxis

Taxis are available at all hours at all terminals. Flat rate fares are in effect to points beyond a 12-mile radius of downtown Boston; ask driver or dispatcher for exact fare in advance.

Fares: Fares to downtown Boston and Cambridge average about $10.

Share-A-Cab

Share-A-Cabs are available from Terminal D. For information on availability, use Share-A-Cab Phones in baggage claim areas in all terminals.

Hours: Daily, 3:30pm–11:00pm only.
Fares: Flat fare is approximately 50% of standard taxi fare, per person; ask driver or dispatcher for exact fare in advance.

Military Transportation

Free bus service is available from all terminals to Hanscom Field and Ft. Devens. No service Saturday and holidays. Service is hourly on the half hour.

Hours: Monday–Friday, 6:30am–8:30pm.
Sunday, 12:30pm–6:30pm.

Airport Water Shuttle

Free Shuttle Bus service to the Logan boat dock for water shuttles (seasonal) to downtown Boston and the South Shore.

Shuttles: Bay State–Provincetown 723-7800
Marina Bay Commuter 328-0600

Fares: Downtown Boston, $4.00
South Shore, $6.50

...Season
After Season
After Season
After Season

New England has six scenic states, four beautiful seasons—and countless ways to enjoy yourself at any time of the year.

Whether you're looking for urban excitement, rural tranquility, outdoor recreation, first class sports and entertainment—or simply the finest seafood in the world—you should head directly for New England.

Our region is accessible, compact, and convenient—and Boston's highly efficient Logan International Airport is the closest U.S. gateway to Northern Europe. There are also hundreds of direct daily flights to cities all across the United States, so you will find Logan convenient both as a destination and as a point of departure.

Take a moment to look over our Boston/ New England Travel Kit. You'll see that, no matter what time of year you'll be traveling, America Begins in New England.

Boston/New England Travel Kit:

THE REGION

The New England States

New England is a conveniently compact region—easy to get around, with or without a car. And with so much to see and do in New England, we think you'll agree that it is the perfect place to discover America.

Rugged mountains, peaceful countryside, exciting cities, and world-famous beaches are all part of New England's special appeal.

Best of all, New England is a year-round festival. Our calendar is full of exciting fairs, sports, music, and cultural events.
